

Vardhman

1965

Commenced operations with 6,000 spindles

1982

Entered into manufacturing of sewing threads

1986

Acquired steel unit from Mohta Industries, now known as Vardhman Special Steels Limited, Ludhiana

1992

Diversified into weaving business with an operating unit at Baddi, Himachal Pradesh

1999

Ventured into the production of acrylic fibre with a unit in Bharuch, Gujarat

2000

Commenced the processing of woven fabrics

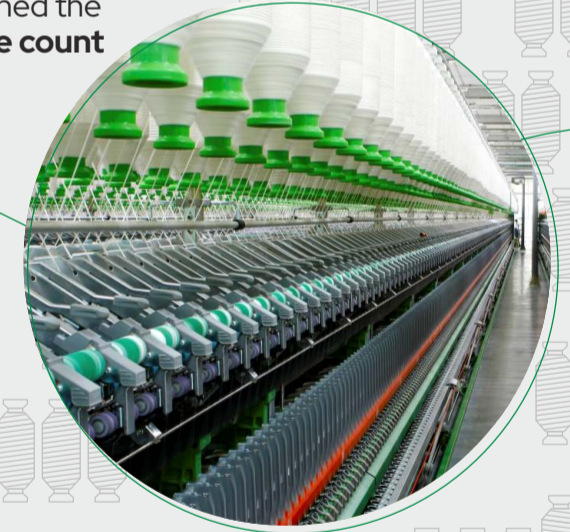

2011

Entered into garment business with manufacturing of formal shirts for men

2013

With an increase in spindle capacity to 1 million, Vardhman reached the highest spindle count in the country

2007

Established the first composite plant with spinning, weaving and fabric processing facilities at Budhni, Madhya Pradesh

2019

Vardhman Special Steels Limited partnered with AICHI Steels, Japan to leverage cutting-edge technology for special and alloy steels

2016

Launched a printed fabric line at Baddi, Himachal Pradesh

2015

Completed 50 golden years of delivering excellence in textile solutions

